

Supervision Talk

Join us for a workshop on effective coaching supervision, focusing on maximising its potential for your development.

18 March 2025

Supervision: A Journey Towards Maturity and Mastery

Many coaches realize the transformative impact of consistent supervision only after experiencing it. If you've ever wondered how to fully leverage your supervision sessions or felt unsure about the benefits, this workshop is for you.

Join us for an engaging workshop that dives into the essentials of effective coaching supervision. Learn how to utilize supervision to its fullest potential, ensuring your development as a coach adept at navigating complex systems.

Participate in a session enriched with recent academic insights into supervision maturity. We encourage you to bring your experiences and questions as we explore practical applications that will accelerate your professional growth.

Book now: connect@shine.global

Meet Your Facilitator

With over 15 years of global coaching and leadership experience, Veronica, a Master Certified Coach and Organisational Psychologist, brings a wealth of knowledge and a unique perspective to supervision.

Her background includes pivotal roles across various multinational settings in South Africa, the UK, and Europe. Veronica's passion for coaching is paralleled by her love for gardening, wildlife, yoga, and meaningful connections with family and friends.

Veronica Royston

Date: 18 March 2025

Venue: Online

Cost: Free of Charge

Book now: connect@shine.global